

Licensed in Slovenia since 2005 and working with international travellers since 2011 — and, since 2018, directing multi-day journeys across the former Yugoslavia and Central Europe. A former advertising copywriter who brings the same craft to storytelling on the road — and the quiet logistics that make a complex itinerary feel effortless from the guest's seat. Trusted by premium operators including Regent Seven Seas, Uniworld, Viking and Abercrombie & Kent, and consistently reviewed for knowledge, humour and reliability. Now also a lecturer at the University of Maribor, Faculty of Tourism.
